Easier searching with Munidocs "Document outline" view

By default, Munidocs loads PDFs in "Thumbnail" view. The left column displays a thumbnail of every page in the document, while the selected page is displayed and read in the right column.

To switch the view, click the "Document outline" icon in the left column.

Instead of thumbnails with page numbers, the left column now displays an index of every page with submission dates and submitters' names.